About the new exercise sheet, for singers, or at least for you voice teachers: My vocal student will be singing the Star-Spangled Banner in June at some kind of Coast Guard ceremony. The notes and intervals are not a problem for her - what IS AN ISSUE is getting started on the right note! I suggested she and her mom download some kind of App that will give her the pitch. No problem finding a free app, but when she heard the electronic sound, she FROZE. It wasn't working for her! So I quickly devised a series of vocal warmups that will help nail that pitch with the electronic app. Problem solved! I think she just needs lots of repetition with the mental exercise of thinking ahead with the pitches. Here's what the exercises looked like: Please scroll down the page for the download links. Origin of the Star Spangled Banner Song and Lyrics The poem that would become the lyrics to our US National Anthem was composed in 1814 by Francis Scott Key as he witnessed the bombardment of Fort McHenry in Maryland during what we now call the War of 1812. A few months later it was joined together with the music to a popular British drinking song of the day and The Star Spangled Banner was born. Complete lyrics to the Star Spangled Banner are included at the bottom of this document. Contrary to popular thought, the original words to the American National Anthem include four complete verses. Traditionally we sing only the first of the four. Links are also provided below to allow you to download and print the sheet music to "The Star Spangled Banner," our American National Anthem. As you can see from the listing of available sheet music, piano parts and guitar parts are not specifically provided, however please feel free to try the clarinet or flute parts as a possible substitute if you are looking for those missing instruments. Be aware that the parts included in this download contain the melody only. PLEASE HELP US KEEP THE SHEET MUSIC ARCHIVE FREE! Page 2 Details Written by Chad Criswell The Stars And Stripes Forever is one of John Philip Sousa's most famous and most often played works. Written in 1896 while on a trip to Europe, the familiar strains of this tune today are commonplace at celebrations, band concerts, and patriotic events across the United States of America. Sousa was said to have played this piece at nearly every concert during the last thirty years of his career. One original recording of the Sousa band performing the song exists and can be listened to online. It is amazing to hear the actual band under the direction of Sousa himself. Although the recording is fairly poor quality, every band should listen to this recording at least once. Another little realized fact about The Stars and Stripes is that Sousa himself wrote a set of lyrics to accompany the music: Let martial note in triumph float And liberty extend its mighty hand A flag appears 'mid thunderous cheers, The banner of the Western land. The emblem of the brave and true Its folds protect no tyrant crew; The red and white and starry blue Is freedom's shield and hope. The rest of the lyrics to this song are found at the bottom of this document. PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS SHEET MUSIC CONTAINS THE BASIC MELODY PARTS ALONG WITH A FULL PIANO ACCOMPANIMENT. The Stars and Stripes Forever The lyrics (words) to The Stars and Stripes Forever: Let martial note in triumph float And liberty extend its mighty hand A flag appears 'mid thunderous cheers, The banner of the Western land. The emblem of the brave and true Its folds protect no tyrant crew; The red and white and starry blue Is freedom's shield and hope. Other nations may deem their flags the best And cheer them with fervid elation But the flag of the North and South and West is the flag of flags, the flag of Freedom's nation. Hurrah for the flag of the free! May it wave as our standard forever, The gem of the land and the sea, The banner of the right. Let despots remember the day When our fathers with mighty endeavor Proclaimed as they marched to the fray That by their might and by their right It waves forever. Let eagle shriek from lofty peak The never-ending watchword of our land; Let summer breeze waft through the trees The echo of the chorus grand. Sing out for liberty and light, Sing out for freedom and the right. Sing out for Union and its might. O patriotic sons. Other nations may deem their flags the best And cheer them with fervid elation. But the flag of the North and South and West is the flag of flags, the flag of Freedom's nation. Hurrah for the flag of the free. May it wave as our standard forever The gem of the land and the sea, The banner of the right. Let despots remember the day When our fathers with might endeavor Proclaimed as they marched to the fray, That by their might and by their right It waves forever.
